FOREST ALCHEMY is a multidisciplinary, interactive exhibition curated and produced by Tracy Ginsberg, featuring eight Bay Area artists. Sculpture, installation, video and performance are exhibited within Fulcrum Projects' outdoor site; painting, drawing and photography are on view in the breezeway gallery. Viewers hike along a two-mile trail loop on a narrative and meditative journey winding through woods, meadows and valleys.

Artists include Tommy Becker- video and performative installation, Leo Bersamina- painting and site-specific earthwork, Bruce Chaban- sculpture, Tracy Ginsberg- painting, sculpture and site-specific installation with performance, Theodore Lillie- photography and sculpture, Terry Mason- site-specific sculpture, Nellie King Solomon- painting, Oscar Trujillo- site-specific performance and artist in residence.
